This Dalton, Georgia-based company reminds prospective customers those looking for the knowledge needed to help stay ahead of the curve, when they really need to know, CAMS, the name of supplier's software, provides that information, that knowledge. The company proudly states that no other software product - available for the floor covering industry - is as comprehensive. Whether you are in the market for a carpet, rug, tile, laminate or yarn manufacturing and distribution software solution, CAMS has you covered. From the manufacturing floor to the front office, to the sales force via internet, the CAMS system provides you and your staff with the critical tools to plan, manage, report, and grow your business. Visit the new CAMS Website, which not only provides information about the company, but also demonstrates some of the flexibility and power of the latest versions of the IBM i for Power Systems (Formerly AS/400). The company's website is currently utilizing the IBM i version of Zend PHP and MySQL along with Wordpress.
